Process and Facilitating Skills Joan Haley, 2020-06-22 Whether you run board meetings, community groups, a family, a staff meeting, or you teach, you are a group leader. But whether or not you are a good one is an open question. Joan Haley, who has led groups and given presentations most of her professional life and studied educational theory and training, shares a proven process for effectively leading groups and provides many concrete techniques to facilitate learning. She shares the Group Process Formula, which is a conceptual framework she developed to work with groups of any kind. The Formula is a failsafe structure ensuring leaders enjoy their groups and maximizes the learning of each participant. Just as important, she reveals how a leader effectively facilitates learning so that participants feel the group is a safe place to work through their own process of self-discovery and utilizes the power of the group as a whole to bolster that learning. Haley provides information to make sure participants walk away with newfound skills, attitudes, and behaviors to use in their lives.      Effective

Leadership Skills Chris Fife, 2014-02-08 Leadership is one of the most important skills in life today. We all face leadership situations in our lives and unfortunately many of us are not ready for them. We are leaders when we become parents to our children, we are leaders many times at our jobs, we sometimes become leaders at our churches, at our communities, and among our friends. If we shy away from our responsibilities as leaders, it only hurts us and those around us. It is critical that we are able to learn to be able to master leadership skills in order to be able to face the challenges of our lives. Children need leadership training more today than at any other time in history so that they can deal with the challenges of the 21st century. It is the lack of leadership skills that has led to violence in schools, unqualified workers, and children unprepared for the real world. Most children lack basic leadership skills and have a hard time getting and holding on to a job. Many of them struggle with healthy relationships and do not have the confidence or the skills to be successful. Effective Leadership Skills Student
