Mindfulness in Internet and New Media Wen-Ko Chiou, Chao Liu, Hao Chen, Shuhua Zhou, 2023-10-24 Mindfulness is about being aware in a certain way being consciously aware on purpose living in the present moment without mental judgment In addition to the in depth application of mindfulness in different subdisciplines of psychology e g social personality clinical developmental health organizational there is also a trend toward cross fertilization with other social and behavioral disciplines e g design kinesiology sociology family studies education anthropology neuroscience philosophy economics medicine organizational science However the application of mindfulness in the field of communication is limited With the rapid development of the Internet and new media the study of Internet communication is growing rapidly The Internet and new media make it easy to connect with others explore a new world and regard cyberspace as an extension of one s own thoughts and personality Nevertheless when people use the Internet and new media mindless they will easily experience the social effects on their virtual selves and encounter psychological problems e g network morality network anxiety network pornography network addiction and cyberbullying which has become a widespread and serious problem As an important part of positive psychology mindfulness intervention has been proved to help improve a series of negative psychological states and promote positive emotions and subjective well being However what theoretical and practical contributions can mindfulness in the Internet and new media bring remains unknown Thus this Research Topic focuses on the influence and intervention of mindfulness on the psychological problems caused by the network new media communication We welcome high quality studies using a variety of research methods including quantitative qualitative mixed methods and reviews on the second generation of mindfulness interventions and other meditation based interventions e g focused attention meditation transcendental meditation and loving kindness meditation This Research Topic encourages submissions that cover but are not limited to the following topics 1 The internet and new media guided mindfulness and loving kindness meditation practice 2 Mindfulness and interpersonal communication in the network network trust network security network intimacy 3

Mindfulness and network clustering behavior 4 Mindfulness and online consumer psychology 5 Mindfulness and cyber moral psychology cyberbullying cyber altruism and prosocial behavior 6 Mindfulness and online pornography 7 Mindfulness and internet addiction 8 Mindfulness and online psychological counseling 9 Mindfulness and new media anxiety The Inner Logout Rakesh Mishra, We live in an era where the boundaries between the physical and digital worlds have blurred to the point of near indistinction The smartphone in your pocket the laptop on your desk the smartwatch on your wrist these devices once heralded as tools of convenience have woven themselves into the fabric of our daily lives dictating how we work connect and even think This hyperconnected world while a marvel of human ingenuity has birthed what can only be described as a digital epidemic an insidious pervasive force that fragments our attention erodes our mental well being and distances us from our inner selves The statistics paint a stark picture As of 2025 the average person spends over 7 hours a day on screens with global internet users surpassing 5 billion Social media platforms streaming services and instant messaging apps compete relentlessly for our attention leveraging algorithms designed to keep us scrolling clicking and engaging The average smartphone user checks their device 150 times a day often without conscious intent driven by a dopamine fueled cycle of notifications and instant gratification This constant connectivity has transformed how we interact with the world but at what cost The digital epidemic is not just about time spent online it s about the psychological and emotional toll it exacts Studies show a sharp rise in anxiety depression and sleep disorders correlated with excessive screen time The constant barrage of notifications emails likes retweets breaking news creates a state of perpetual alertness leaving our nervous systems in a chronic state of fight or flight The prefrontal cortex responsible for focus and decision making is overwhelmed by the sheer volume of information we process daily leading to what psychologists call cognitive overload This overload manifests as mental fog reduced productivity and a pervasive sense of being always on yet never fully present
