become leaders themselves Lao Tzu had something to say about leadership This much revered ancient Chinese philosopher and founder of Taoism is a leader himself His influences not only on his homeland but also on the entirety of the world have been so vast and powerful that his teachings continue to live on until today Lao Tzu said A leader is best when people barely know he exists when his work is done his aim fulfilled they will all say we did it ourselves Lao Tzu s thought on leadership is a rather deep one extending beyond the physical For Lao Tzu a leader does his job best when he can make his men accomplish their mission without him actually taking part in the physical endeavors A leader is someone who brings out his men s best potential not someone who does most of the work One of the greatest military leaders in the world s history the French general and emperor Napoleon Bonaparte appears to share almost the same thoughts of leadership with Lao Tzu When I give a minister an order I leave it to him to find the means to carry it out For him leadership is not about directing people all the way through getting a job done Being a leader involves choosing the right men to do the right job and letting them do it their way
