Forging Peace Intervention Human Rights And The Management Of Media Space:

Forging Peace Monroe E. Price, Mark Thompson, 2002 The bloody conflicts of the past decade have focused international attention on the strategic role of the media in promoting war and perpetuating chaos Written against this backdrop Forging Peace brings together case studies and legal analysis of the steps that the United Nations NATO and other organizations have taken to build pluralist and independent media in the wake of massive human rights violations It examines current thinking on the legality of unilateral humanitarian intervention and analyzes in graphic detail the pioneering use of information intervention techniques in conflict zones ranging from full scale bombardment and confiscation of transmitters to the establishment of new laws and regulatory regimes With its focus on the role of media in preventing human rights violations Forging Peace will influence policy and debate for years to come Media and Sovereignty Monroe E.

Price, 2002 A study of the relationship between international media regulations and efforts by nation states to assert sovereignty and shape media at home and abroad The Media and the Rwanda Genocide Allan Thompson, 2007-01-20

Explores the role of the media in the Rwandan genocide within the country and beyond Advocacy and Change in International Organizations Kseniya Oksamytna, 2023-09-14 How do international organizations change Many organizations expand into new areas or abandon programmes of work Advocacy and Change in International Organizations argues that they do so not only at the collective direction of member states Advocacy is a crucial but overlooked source of change in international organizations Different actors can advocate for change national diplomats international bureaucrats external experts or civil society activists They can use one of three advocacy strategies social pressure persuasion and authority talk The success of each strategy depends on the presence of favourable conditions related to characteristics of advocates targets issues and context Institutionalization of new issues in international organizations as a multi stage process often accompanied by contestation This book demonstrates how the advocacy focused framework explains the origins of three workstreams of contemporary UN peacekeeping operations communication protection and reconstruction The issue of strategic communications was promoted by UN officials through the strategy of persuasion Protection of civilians emerged due to a partially successful social influence campaign by a coalition of elected Security Council members and a subsequent and successful persuasion efforts by Canada Quick impact projects entered peacekeepers practice as the result of authority talk by an expert panel The three issues illustrate the diversity of pathways to change in international organizations representing the top down bottom up and outside in pathways Moreover they have achieved different degrees of institutionalization in UN s policies structures and frameworks protection of civilians is the most institutionalized as evidenced by measures to hold peacekeepers accountable for non implementation while quick impact projects are the least institutionalized Convincing Rebel Fighters to Disarm Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob, 2016-11-07 One of the key mission objectives of the UN Mission in the Democratic Republic of Congo MONUC was to disarm and repatriate foreign combatants

in the eastern region of the country To achieve this MONUC adopted a push and pull strategy This involved applying military pressure while at the same time offering opportunities for voluntary disarmament and repatriation for armed combatants of the elusive but deadly Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda FDLR a predominantly Rwandan Hutu armed group in eastern DRC As part of its pull strategy MONUC embarked on one of the most sophisticated Information Operations IO campaigns in UN history with the core objective of convincing thousands of individual combatants and commanders of the FDLR to voluntarily disarm and join the UN's Demobilization Disarmament Repatriation Resettlement and Reintegration programme DDRRR This book is derived from studies of the narratives coordination and effectiveness of the UN's IO in support of DDRRR and how the UN has integrated IO as part of its Mission peace support operations This book advances contemporary understanding of the relative importance of communication models and their interactions within conflict settings It provides instruments with which conflict and communication analysts can compare predictions and rationalize Information impacts for future conflicts About the author Dr Jacob Udo Udo Jacob teaches Communications Media Studies at the American University of Nigeria He earned his PhD in Communication Studies from the University of Leeds United Kingdom

Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law - 2002 Horst Fischer, Avril McDonald, 2011-03-04 The world's only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws of armed conflict the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this highly topical branch of international law The Yearbook also includes a selection of documents from the reporting period many of which are not accessible elsewhere and a comprehensive bibliography of all recent publications in humanitarian law and other relevant fields Ease of use of the Yearbook is guaranteed by the inclusion of a detailed index Distinguished by its topicality and contemporary relevance the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students

Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2004 Media and Political Violence Hillel Nosssek, Annabelle Sreberny, Prasun Sonwalkar, 2007 Offering a study of media and political violence this work provides case studies of instances of media coverage of political violence It suggests some approaches and trajectories for research It includes chapters that present analyses of media violence relationship from a variety of points in historical time

Information and Communication Technology for Peace Daniel Stauffacher, United Nations ICT Task Force, 2005 This report from ICT4Peace project describes the background to the project before presented some selected examples of how information technology has been used for the prevention of conflict and aid with recovery

War and Conflict Communication Philip M. Seib, 2010 The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2004 This timely collection investigates how the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from both sections of the continent explore a wide variety of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study

Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years This dual emphasis exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise of postcolonialist analyses of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 2003 Propaganda, Censorship and Irish

Neutrality in the Second World War Robert Cole, 2006 Based upon original research in archives in Ireland Great Britain the United States and Canada this study opens a new page in the history of wartime propaganda and censorship

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Slavic Review, 2003 American quarterly of Soviet and East European studies varies

Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić, 1998 In this second volume Rusko Matulic continues to formulate a comprehensive bibliography of primarily published sources relating to the history languages literature politics government religion and social sciences of former Yugoslavia including bibliographical materials on expatriates

British Propaganda and News Media in the Cold War John Jenks, 2006 John Jenks digs into the archives to give a detailed account of British media discourse news manipulation and propaganda in the early Cold War The Power of Symbolic Power Ylva Isabelle Blondel, 2004 The present study focuses on honour which is one facet of symbolic power that is particularly relevant for understanding conflict because it is often associated with publicly participating in violence Barry O'Neill's Game of Honour model originally developed for inter state relations provides a structured framework to analyse the strategic use of symbols in internal asymmetric conflicts The main claim in this dissertation is that because there is only one recognised state apparatus competition is always for the same audience I argue that this makes it difficult to assume that the state can adequately foresee the audience's expectations and that outcomes of a challenge can best be understood as the relative honour of the primary actors abstract British Propaganda to France, 1940-1944 Timothy William

Brooks, 2007 Preface Introduction British propaganda in the Second World War Chapter One Machinery background planning and departmental organisation Chapter Two Method the distribution of white propaganda Chapter Three Message what white propaganda said Chapter Four Reaction the impact of white propaganda Chapter Five Machinery method message and reaction Conclusion Map Appendix Notes Bibliography British News Media and the Spanish Civil War David Deacon, 2008 The most extensive and detailed analysis of the reporting of the Spanish Civil War ever undertaken
