Choosing the Best Abstinence education booklets

With the emergence of technology as a tool for learning, South Forsyth High School will be utilizing various resources to assist with instruction, including ANGEL, online textbooks, and interactive websites. In addition to these web based instructional tools, this course will also have a classroom set of textbooks. Should you feel that your child would benefit from having a textbook at home in addition to the classroom textbook, please contact your child's teacher.

Required Assignments: Most assignments should be completed during class. Students are not allowed to take textbooks from classrooms. Pop quizzes may be given at any time. Current Event assignments and projects will be announced by individual teachers. Projects include but are not limited to: a fast food research project, nutrition log, informational drug brochure, time management activity, and family values activity.

Makeup Work: All missed work and assessments are the responsibility of the student when they are absent from school. A student who is absent on the class day before a regularly scheduled assessment will be responsible for completing the assignment on the regularly scheduled day and time. Students who have been absent more than two consecutive days (including the assessment day) will be given five (5) school days to make up the assessment and/or other assignments. This does not include major projects, research papers, etc., where the deadline has been posted in advance. The teacher has the discretion to grant a longer period of time to make up work if there are extenuating circumstances.
