European Constitutionalism Beyond The State:

European Constitutionalism Beyond the State J. H. H. Weiler, Marlene Wind, 2003-09-04 Some of the most innovative scholars in the field of European constitutionalism come together in this book to highlight different facets of the new constitutional discussion Provoking deep analysis of the different ideas of constitution and constitutionalism it delineates new ways of thinking about the future of Europe In particular it aims to challenge the idea of the European Union as an evolving federal polity This book will appeal to anyone interested in the timely subject of constitutionalism including student and practitioners of law politics and philosophy Europe's Functional Constitution Turkuler Isiksel, 2016-05-26 Constitutionalism has become a byword for legitimate government but is it fated to lose its relevance as constitutional states relinquish power to international institutions This book evaluates the extent to which constitutionalism as an empirical idea and normative ideal can be adapted to institutions beyond the state by surveying the sophisticated legal and political system of the European Union Having originated in a series of agreements between states the EU has acquired important constitutional features like judicial review protections for individual rights and a hierarchy of norms Nonetheless it confounds traditional models of constitutional rule to the extent that its claim to authority rests on the promise of economic prosperity and technocratic competence rather than on the democratic will of citizens Critically appraising the European Union and its legal system this book proposes the idea of functional constitutionalism to describe this distinctive configuration of public power Although the EU is the most advanced instance of functional constitutionalism to date understanding this pragmatic mode of constitutional authority is essential for assessing contemporary international economic governance Lincoln's Inn Lectures on European Law and Human Rights Edite Ligere, 2010 The Lincoln's Inn annual European Law Conference is the largest public educational event in the Inn's calendar Over the past ten years the Conference and the Sir Thomas More Lecture which is its centrepiece have brought to the Inn some of the most illustrious figures in the world of European Law and Human Rights This volume reproduces the text of the annual Sir Thomas More Lecture together with other lectures and talks given in conjunction with it or throughout the year as part of the Inn's extensive programme of teaching and training in European Law and Human Rights New York University Journal of International Law & Politics New York University. International Law Society, 2003 Europe's Functional Constitution Turkuler Isiksel, 2016 Through a critical appraisal of the European Union and its legal system this book evaluates the extent to which constitutionalism as an empirical idea and normative ideal can be adapted to institutions beyond the state International Journal of Constitutional Law, 2008 American Law in the 21st Century John C. Reitz, David Scott Clark, 2006 The International Congress of Comparative Law is held under the auspices of the International Academy of Comparative Law Preface European Union--the Second Founding Ludger Kühnhardt, 2008 The author is presenting a broadly structured study about the first fifty years of European integration its geopolitical context and academic reflection His study is based on the two fold thesis that since a few years the European Union is going through a process of its Second Founding while simultaneously changing its rationale Journal of International and Area Studies ,2005 Symposium on Religion, Religious Pluralism, and the Rule of Law ,2007 The Chartering of Europe Erik Oddvar Eriksen,2003 This book stems from a concern with the role of the Charter in fostering a constitutional moment in Europe It addresses the question of the nature and character of the Charter why it is needed and what is its contribution to the constitution making process in the EU The book is divided in three sections The first section deals with why a charter of fundamental rights is needed The section includes a chapter comparing the European and the Canadian Charters In the second section the processes and deliberations leading to the formation of the Charter are discussed The last section deals with the legal and normative coherence of the Charter and includes a chapter on the need for a European constitution This book is composed of 12 essays from specialists in the field of European Integration Processes and Constitutionalism among others Neil MacCormick and Jurgen Habermas Symposium ,2008 Constitutionalism and Democracy Richard Paul Bellamy,2006 The contributions in this volume cover five main themes centring on constitutionalism and democracy substantive views procedural views reconciling substance procedures populist constitutionalism and constitutional democracy beyond the nation state Back to Maastricht Stefania Baroncelli,Carlo Spagnolo,Leila Simona Talani,2008 Suggests that the end of the Cold War has modified the functions of European integration so that the original ideals of integration have lost part of their appeal hence the birth of the European Union can be regarded as an attempt to seek a new legitimacy State and Traditional Law in Angola and Mozambique Armando Marques Guedes,Maria José Lopes,Stephen Ellis,2007 The Administrative Law of the European Union ,2004 Constitution Drafting in Post-conflict States Symposium ,2008 30 Ans D'études Juridiques Européennes Au College D'Europe Paul Demaret,2005 This book gathers together contributions from thirty two former and current professors who have through their teaching in the Legal Studies Department at the College of Europe enhanced the College s reputation as an authentic European academic postgraduate centre of excellence Within their areas of specialisation the authors analyse both the evolution of European law over the years and more specific questions The contributions cover institutional constitutional law judicial remedies the law governing the internal market and its accompanying politics competition law and the law of the Union s external relations Current Law Index ,2007 Transnational Law & Contemporary Problems ,2005
