Evaluation A Systematic Approach 7th Edition:

Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey, Howard E. Freeman, 2003-10-14 Since Peter H. Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey and Howard E. Freeman first published Evaluation A Systematic Approach more than 90 000 readers have considered it the premier text on how to design, implement and appraise social programs through evaluation. In this, the completely revised Seventh Edition, authors Rossi and Lipsey include the latest techniques and approaches to evaluation as well as guidelines to tailor evaluations to fit programs and social contexts. With decades of hands-on experience conducting evaluations, the authors provide scores of examples to help students understand how evaluators deal with various critical issues. They include a glossary of key terms and concepts making this the most comprehensive and authoritative evaluation text available. Thoroughly revised, the Seventh Edition now includes substantially more attention to outcome measurement. Lengthy discussions of program theory, including a section about detecting program effects and interpreting their practical significance. An augmented and updated discussion of major evaluation designs. A detailed exposition of meta-analysis as an approach to the synthesis of evaluation studies. Alternative approaches to evaluation. Examples of successful evaluations. Discussions of the political and social contexts of evaluation. Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Howard E. Freeman, Mark W. Lipsey, 1999 The 6th edition of Evaluation includes the most up-to-date techniques and approaches available in the field of implementing and appraising social programmes. The 6th edition has more of a focus on diagnostic procedures in evaluation.

Evaluation Peter Henry Rossi, Mark W. Lipsey, Gary T. Henry, 2018-11-27 Evaluation A Systematic Approach is the bestselling comprehensive introduction to the field of programme evaluation covering the range of evaluation research activities used in appraising the design, implementation, effectiveness and efficiency of social programmes. This Eighth Edition includes a new practical chapter on planning an evaluation. Evaluation Peter H. Rossi, Howard E. Freeman, 1989-09 This volume offers both researchers and students an ideal tool for conducting and implementing evaluation research. 1 Programs, policies and evaluations 2 Diagnostic procedures 3 Tailoring evaluations 4 Program monitoring for evaluation and management 5 Strategies for impact assessment 6 Randomized designs for impact assessment 7 Non-randomized designs for impact assessment 8 Measuring efficiency 9 The social context of evaluation. Evaluation Theory, Models, and Applications Daniel L. Stufflebeam, Chris L. S. Coryn, 2014-09-26 The golden standard evaluation reference text. Now in its second edition, Evaluation Theory, Models and Applications is the vital text on evaluation models, perfect for classroom use as a textbook and as a professional evaluation reference. The book begins with an overview of the evaluation field and program evaluation standards and proceeds to cover the most widely used evaluation approaches. With new evaluation designs and the inclusion of the latest literature from the field, this Second Edition is an essential update for professionals and students who want to stay current. Understanding and choosing evaluation approaches is critical to many professions and Evaluation Theory, Models and Applications Second Edition is the benchmark evaluation guide. Authors Daniel L. Stufflebeam and Chris L. S.

International Perspectives on Evaluation Standards Craig Russon, Gabrielle Russon, 2005-02-11 Prior to 1995 there were fewer than half a dozen regional and national evaluation organizations around the world Today there are more than fifty attesting to a growing interest in the practice of program evaluation internationally Many of these new organizations have undertaken efforts to develop their own standards or to modify existing sets most typically the Program Evaluation Standards of the Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation for use in their own cultural context Following two introductory chapters one a conceptual overview and the second a history of the development and revisions of the Program Evaluation Standards this issue documents standards development efforts in three different settings Western Europe Africa and Australasia In addition because nongovernmental organizations and governments have entered the standard setting business other chapters describe standards development activities by the European Commission and CARE International The content points to the challenge of formalizing standards for program evaluation given cross cultural differences in values and to the continuing challenges related to implementing voluntary standards This is the 104th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Evaluation

Congress and Program Evaluation Clinton T. Brass, Blas Nunez-Neto, Erin D. Williams, 2008 Program evaluations can play an important role in public policy debates and in oversight of government programs potentially affecting decisions about program design operation and funding One technique that has received significant recent attention is the randomised controlled trial RCT There are also many other types of evaluation including the observational and qualitative designs

Program Evaluation in a Complex Organizational System: Lessons from Cooperative Extension Marc T. Braverman, 2008 This issue of New Directions for Evaluation focuses on evaluation in complex organizations The themes that are examined the mainstreaming of evaluation within organizations the growth of evaluation capacity and the use of evaluation to promote organizational learning are relevant for evaluators who operate in environments marked by multiple organizational levels varied funding streams divergent purposes for evaluative information and numerous stakeholders and organizational partners The national Cooperative Extension System serves as a recurring case study that links the topics together Cooperative Extension is a system of institutions that includes every state s land grant universities the U S Department of Agriculture and local country governments The linkages across professional communities and distinct institutions create a highly complex environment presenting numerous challenges for evaluators working with community based programs Extension s experiences contribute to a rapidly evolving knowledge base about effective evaluation practice across a variety of organizational settings This is the 120th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly thematic journal New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association The journal publishes empirical methodological and theoretical works on all aspects of evaluation Each issue is devoted to a single topic with contributions solicited organized reviewed and edited by a guest editor or editors Issues may take any of several forms such as a series of related chapters a debate or a long article followed by brief critical commentaries

Theorists' Models in Action Marvin Alkin, 2005-08-11 This volume analyzes how evaluation theorists apply their approach in practice A scenario of a situation at an elementary school is presented to four prominent theorists who describe how they would design and conduct an evaluation of the school s program The editors consider the theorists proposed evaluations as well as their subsequent comments to develop themes related to the influence of theory and context on practice They also provide a comparative analysis of the theorists evaluation approaches in relation to the context of evaluation case presented Evaluation theorists seem to be quite good at propounding on how they think the evaluation world ought to work Yet do we really know that what theorists say they would do in practice is indeed what they would actually do Evaluation after all is situational Each context offers its own constituency set of values programmatic elements bureaucratic hurdles and other variables This volume demonstrates why evaluators need to adapt their point of view to a particular situation and provides much needed study and analysis on the way in which they make those adaptations This is the 106th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Evaluation 21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D.
