European Tapestries In The Art Institute Of Chicago:

European Tapestries in the Art Institute of Chicago Koenraad Brosens, Art Institute of Chicago, Pascal-François Bertrand, 2008 This lavishly illustrated book presents a rich variety of European tapestries from the Art Institute of Chicago These exquisite examples of the art of tapestry weaving include medieval Renaissance and Baroque works manufactured at many of the foremost workshops in the major centers of production Among the pieces discussed are The Annunciation a Renaissance masterpiece designed by an artist in the circle of Andrea Mantegna The Story of Caesar and Cleopatra a magnificent series of fourteen tapestries now attributed with certainty to Justus van Egmont who worked in Rubens's studio Autumn and Winter based on designs by Charles Le Brun and The Elephant woven after a design by Jean Baptiste Monnoyer An international team of scholars explains the history of this previously unpublished collection and offers new designer and workshop attributions design and source identifications and provenance information Book Jacket Tapestry in the Baroque Thomas Patrick Campbell, Elizabeth A. H. Cleland, 2010 This illustrated volume is a comprehensive survey of 17th century European tapestry It features some of the finest surviving examples from many international collections as well as a number of related designs and oil sketches Conundrum Charissa Bremer-David, 2015-12-15 The whimsical imagery of four tapestries in the permanent collection of the J Paul Getty Museum and currently on display at the Getty Center is perplexing Created in France at the Beauvais manufactory between 1690 and 1730 these charming hangings unlike most French tapestries of the period appear to be purely decorative with no narrative thread no theological moral and no allegorical symbolism They belong to a series called the Grotesques inspired by ancient frescos discovered during the excavation of the Roman emperor Nero's Domus Aurea or Golden House but the origins of their mysterious subject matter have long eluded art historians Based on seven years of research Conundrum Puzzles in the Grotesques Tapestry Series reveals for the first time that the artist responsible for these designs Jean Baptiste Monnoyer 1636-1699 actually incorporated dozens of motifs and vignettes from a surprising range of sources antique statuary Renaissance prints Mannerist tapestry and Baroque art as well as contemporary seventeenth century urban festivals court spectacle and theater Conundrum illustrates the most interesting of these sources alongside full color details and overall views of the four tapestries The book's informative and engaging essay identifies and decodes the tapestries intriguing visual puzzles enlightening our understanding and appreciation of the series unexpectedly rich intellectual underpinnings Bulletin of the Art Institute of Chicago Art Institute of Chicago, 1907 Monstrous Beauty: A Feminist Revision of Chinoiserie Iris Moon, 2025-03-24 Monstrous Beauty presents a bold cross cultural history of porcelain told through a feminist lens Prized for its delicate quality and whiteness porcelain was first imported to Europe from China in the early modern period and gained lasting associations with Chinoiserie a style that encapsulated associations of mystery and enchantment with Asia This book probes the collective anxieties around gender race and sexuality lurking under the surface of this ornate style derided by some eighteenth century critics as monstrous and unnatural In interconnected essays Iris Moon unpacks Chinoiserie s language of curiosity and exoticism Here close looking at garnitures plates tea cups and saucers reveals how the desire to collect and possess porcelain created entrenched cultural myths of the Asian woman and how it later extended into such mediums as photography and film In addition sixteen readings by contemporary artists and scholars of works ranging from the sixteenth century to the present respond to this fraught history by asking how we can engage in meaningful dialogues about Chinoiserie today
