Drinking Cultures Alcohol And Identity:

Drinking Cultures Thomas M. Wilson, 2005 Food, Drink and Identity in Europe , 2016-08-01 Scholars across the humanities and social sciences are increasingly examining the importance of consumption to changing notions of local regional national and supranational identity in Europe As part of this interest anthropologists historians sociologists and others have paid particular attention to the roles which food and drink have played in the construction of local regional and national identity in Europe This volume provides the first multidisciplinary look at the contributions which food and alcohol make to contemporary European identities including the part they play in processes of European integration and Europeanization It provides theoretically informed ethnographic and historical case studies of transformations and continuity in social and cultural patterns in the production and consumption of European foods and drinks in order to explore how eating and drinking have helped to construct various local regional and national identities in Europe Of particular note in this volume is its attention to how food and drink intersect with recent attempts to foster greater European integration in part through the recognition and support of common and diverse European cultures and identities Transnational Identity and Memory Making in the Lives of Iraqi Women in Diaspora Nadia` Jones-Gailani, 2020-08-26 This book draws on an extensive archive of over one hundred oral narratives collected and recorded with Iraqi women in three sites Amman Detroit and Toronto Nadia Jones Gailani demonstrates how the relationships between ethno religious migrants nation and citizenship are shaped by the traumatic experiences of forced displacement and integration into new communities and national imaginaries This book also examines the broader historical trends that have precipitated migration from Iraq While informed by research into the archival documentary record on Iraqis in North America this book is first and foremost a study of gender and memory that focuses on women s oral histories By historicizing the process through which ethno religious and ethno national communities become fractured and remade Jones Gailani explores the expectations and realities of women as the supposed biological and cultural reproducers of the nation The Iraqi women featured in this book assert their claims to belonging across three different generations thereby opening up spaces to discuss how sites of migration shape the ability of migrants to lobby for the homeland even as they engage in daily struggles to advance their education and economic stability abroad

Drinking Cultures Thomas M. Wilson, 2005-05 Contributors look at alcohol consumption across cultures and what it means to the people who consume or equally tellingly refuse to consume Alcohol plays a role in a wide range of functions religious familial social and even political and this is a cross cultural study of the profound impact alcohol has on national identity Nightlife and Crime Phil Hadfield, 2009-03-05 Nightlife and Crime is a collection of scholarly reports on crime and disorder in the Night Time Economies NTEs of 17 countries It includes contributions from an international and interdisciplinary team of experts who reflect on the challenges such crimes present to the economic and social life of towns

Drinking Dilemmas Thomas Thurnell-Read, 2015-12-14 Drinking and drunkenness have become a focal point for political and media debates to contest notions of responsibility discipline and risk yet at the same time academic studies have highlighted the positive aspects of drinking in relation to sociability belonging and identity These issues are at the heart of this volume which brings together the work of academics and researchers exploring social and cultural aspects of contemporary drinking practices These drinking practices are enormously varied and are spatially and culturally defined The contributions to the volume draw on research settings from across the UK and beyond to demonstrate both the complexity and diversity of drinking subjectivities and practices Across these examples tensions relating to gender social class age and the life course are particularly prominent Rather than align to now long established moral discourses about what constitutes good and bad drinking sociological approaches to alcohol foreground the vivid lived nature of alcohol consumption and the associated experiences of drunkenness and intoxication In doing so the volume illuminates the controversial yet important social and cultural roles played by drink for individuals and groups across a range of social contexts European Studies

Menno Spiering,2001 Anthropological Notebooks ,2006 Alcohol Andrea C. Nakaya,2008 Presents research and interviews that address various questions about alcohol Bibliographic Index ,2009 Intoxicated Identities Tim Mitchell,2013-07-04 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Identity in the 21st Century Margaret Wetherell,2009-11-05 Bringing together leading scholars to investigate trends in contemporary social life this book examines the current patterning of identities based on class and community gender and generation race faith and ethnicity and derived from popular culture exploring debates about social change individualization and the re making of social class International Guide to Literature on Masculinity Diederik F. Janssen,2008 International in scope this guide lists references by world region selected nations selected American ethnic minorities and Christianity and Judaism Specific ethnic minorities covered include American Indians African Americans and Asian Americans Culture and Identity

Charles Lindholm,2007-07 In this newly revised and updated edition Lindholm provides a comprehensive introduction to psychological anthropology deftly tracing the growth of the field introducing the key theorists and covering a broad range of contemporary topics such as identity emotions symbolic systems and the psychology of groups Uncanny Collisions Joshua Robin McVeigh-Schultz,2007 Irish Studies Marti D. Lee,Ed Madden,2008 Highlighting the work of both established and emerging scholars in Irish studies this collection brings together fifteen essays working at the intersection of two important and developing fields of Irish studies gender studies and cultural geography Developed from papers first presented at a regional meeting of the American Conference for Irish Studies in South Carolina in 2006 not only does this work suggest the importance of linking gender and geography but it also suggests in the range of literary and historical topics the rich interdisciplinary nature of Irish studies at present Central to all of the essays is an attention to intersections of gender and sexual identity formation with the politics of place and space Although considerations of geographic space have long been staples of Irish cultural studies especially in relation to political identities these pieces suggest the critical importance of linking spatial and geographic analysis more clearly to ongoing examinations of gender and sexuality From institutions such as the Magdalen laundries and the prison to the domestic garden and home across urban and rural landscapes from the Dublin GPO to a St Patty s festival in the southern United States this book examines the local and human contexts of identity formation and performance The Alcoholic Self Norman K. Denzin,1987-01-01 Denzin offers a uniquely phenomenological approach to explain the development of an alcoholic s sense of self that is fragmented defensive and subjective He discusses behavioural and psychoanalytic theories of the problem and considers the views of alcoholics themselves He places the disease within a broader social context arguing that the alcoholic s internal conflicts reflect the dichotomies and contradictions in society Food, Culture and Identity in the Neolithic and Early Bronze Age Michael Parker Pearson,2003 Archaeology literally feeds on the residues and discarded remains of our ancestors meals Such material has spawned a vast field of research and scientific techniques looking at prehistoric diet and food so that we can now learn more about the residues found stuck to the bottom of a Bronze Age pot than what is at the bottom of our own freezers Alcohol Health and Research World ,1997 Performance and Identity in Popular Culture's Re/presentations of Tinku Ritual by Andean People Rodolfo Meyer,2008
