Revolution Rebecca Sharp, 2020-08-09

Dr Rebecca Sharp's Revolution is a hot and angsty enemies to lovers romance written in K Bromberg's Driven World No tits in the pits You can grab my pole Kacey If Kacey Snyder was a lady she'd be at home I'd heard it all before all the ways I didn't belong and it never stopped me Until a well deserved punch to a fellow driver banned me from NASCAR for the season Now my only chance to drive is at the Indianapolis 500 the most prestigious race in the country And I'm the only woman competing Unfortunately my contract didn't mention the suffocating publicity nor the abrasive mechanic building the car Garret Gallagher guards many secrets behind his callous attitude how much he dislikes me isn't one of them That's fine with me I can't stand him either Especially the way his Irish brogue makes me melt over words that chill me to the bone In my world nothing matters except power and speed and proving myself Until him Until us As obstacles unfold and secrets unravel suddenly I'm fighting for more than the finish line They say revolutions begin with a single spark One driver on the track One desire that can't be stopped But in a revolution driven by love What if he was the only prize worth winning
