Dubwise Reasoning From The Reggae Underground:

Dubwise Klive Walker, 2005 Reggae's influence can be heard in the popular music of nations in a variety of continents In Dubwise Klive Walker takes a fresh look at Bob Marley's global impact specifically his legacy in the Caribbean diaspora While considering Marley's status as an international reggae icon Walker also discusses the vital contributions to reggae culture authored by other important Jamaican innovators such as poet Louise Bennett hand drummer Oswald Count Ossie Williams jazz saxophonist Joe Harriott ska trombonist Don Drummond and singer Dennis Brown Rastafari and the Arts Darren J. N. Middleton, 2015-02-11 Drawing on literary musical and visual representations of and by Rastafari Darren J. N. Middleton provides an introduction to Rasta through the arts broadly conceived The religious underpinnings of the Rasta movement are often overshadowed by Rasta's association with reggae music dub and performance poetry Rastafari and the Arts An Introduction takes a fresh view of Rasta considering the relationship between the artistic and religious dimensions of the movement in depth Middleton's analysis complements current introductions to Afro Caribbean religions and offers an engaging example of the role of popular culture in illuminating the beliefs and practices of emerging religions Recognizing that outsiders as well as insiders have shaped the Rasta movement since its modest beginnings in Jamaica Middleton includes interviews with members of both groups including Ejay Khan Barbara Makeda Blake Hannah Geoffrey Philp Asante Amen Reggae Rajahs Benjamin Zephaniah Monica Haim Blakk Rasta Rocky Dawuni and Marvin D Sterling The Voice as Something More Martha Feldman, Judith T. Zeitlin, 2019-09-30 In the contemporary world voices are caught up in fundamentally different realms of discourse practice and culture between sounding and nonsounding material and nonmaterial literal and metaphorical In The Voice as Something More Martha Feldman and Judith T. Zeitlin tackle these paradoxes with a bold and rigorous collection of essays that look at voice as both object of desire and material object Using Mladen Dolar's influential A Voice and Nothing More as a reference point The Voice as Something More reorients Dolar's psychoanalytic analysis around the material dimensions of voices their physicality and timbre the fleshiness of their mechanisms the veils that hide them and the devices that enhance and distort them Throughout the essays put the body back in voice Ending with a new essay by Dolar that offers reflections on these vocal aesthetics and paradoxes this authoritative multidisciplinary collection ranging from Europe and the Americas to East Asia from classics and music to film and literature will serve as an essential entry point for scholars and students who are thinking toward materiality Music, Subcultures and Migration Elke Weesjes, Matthew Worley, 2024-03-26 This edited volume concentrates on the period from the 1940s to the present exploring how popular music forms such as blues disco reggae hip hop grime metal and punk evolved and transformed as they traversed time and space Within this framework the collection traces how music and subcultures travel through to and from democracies autocracies and anocracies The chosen approach is multidisciplinary and deliberately diverse Using both archival sources and oral testimony from a wide variety of musicians promoters critics and members of the audience contributors from a range of academic disciplines explore music and subcultural forms in countries across Asia Europe Oceania North America and Africa They investigate how far the meaning of music and associated subcultures change as they move from one context to another and consider whether they transcend or blur parameters of class race gender and sexuality

Multimodality in Canadian Black Feminist Writing Maria Caridad Casas, 2009 This book develops a theory of multimodality the participation of a text in more than one mode centred on the poetry poetics of Lillian Allen Claire Harris Dionne Brand and Marlene Nourbese Philip How do these poets represent oral Caribbean English Creoles CECs in writing and negotiate the relationship between the high literary in Canadian letters and the social and historical meanings of CECs How do the latter relate to the idea of female and black Through fluid use of code and mode switching the movement of Brand and Philip between creole and standard English and written orality and standard writing forms part of their meanings Allen's eye spellings precisely indicate stereotypical creole sounds yet use the phonological system of standard English On stage Allen projects a black female body in the world and as a speaking subject She thereby shows that the implication of the written in the literary excludes her body's language as performance and she embodies her poetry to realize a language alternative to the colonizing literary Harris's creole writing helps her project a fragmented personality a range of dialects enabling quite different personae to emerge within one body Thus Harris Brand Philip and Allen both project the identity female and black and explore this social position in relation to others Considering textual multimodality opens up a wide range of material connections Although written this poetry is also oral if oral then also embodied if embodied then also participating in discourses of race gender sexuality and a host of other systems of social organization and individual identity Finally the semiotic body as a mode i.e. as a resource for making meaning allows written meanings to be made that cannot otherwise be expressed in writing In every case Allen Philip Harris and Brand escape the constraints of dominant media refiguring language via dialect and mode to represent a black feminist sensibility

Beyond the Canebrakes Emily Allen Williams, 2008 15 essays and two interviews that examine the work of West Indian writers living in Canada The authors of these essays and interviews dissect issues of history gender power identity and levels of discourse in moving scholars researchers and students into arenas of study and critique of the West Indian Woman writer residing in Canada

Global Rhythm, 2006 Canadian Book Review Annual, 2007 Caribbean Quarterly, 2006 American Book Publishing Record, 2005

Dub Wise Geoffrey Philp, 2010 Reflecting the author's signature qualities this collection of poems displays an unabashed sense of humanity considered political sensibility capacity to treat domestic matters with deft lyrical power and the constant and shaping presence of the mythos of reggae and third world spirituality Illustrating the assurance of a poet fully in his stride this anthology also demonstrates a sharply honed technical mastery communicating a deepening consciousness of what it means to be in midlife Utilizing the concepts of family migration home and loss this compilation establishes the metaphor of Dub the great Jamaican musical invention that champions urbanity the embrace of influence and history improvisation and above all a commitment to the delight of the people Expounding upon spiritual revelation and political engagement through the prism of Dub this compendium sets a high standard within the genre of poetry
